Lost and Found Dogs

- The Dogs' Home is the official for the Brighton, Clarence, Hobart, Burnie, Devonport, Kentish, Latrobe and Waratah/Wynyard municipalities
- If you loose your dog or if you find a stray dog, telephone the Dogs' Home immediately and leave all the details about the dog with the receptionist. These can be very busy phone lines at times so please keep trying – Hobart – 6243 5177, Burnie – 6431 6199, Devonport – 6427 2178.
- If you're lost dog is not at the home, phone every two days. Have a photo of your dog that you can leave at the Dogs' Home to help staff with identifying your dog.
- The Dog Control Act requires the owner of an impounded dog to pay a maintenance fee. This fee covers the daily care of their pet whilst at the home. Your dog will also need to be registered, if this has not all ready been done.
- We also recommend you contact your local council, the RSPCA and your local veterinary clinic as your lost dog may have been injured.
- Help us to help you by having your pet registered and attach a registration disc to your dog's collar. A dog not wearing a registration disc is held in the pound for 3 working days. A registered dog is held for 5 working days. Micro chipping (a permanent form of identification) is also available at the Dogs' Home.
